

Interesting places around Hella

Total distance
from Hella to Hella 81 km

Hella

Our biggest town

At Hella you can find all service needed. Three different restaurants, woolshop, grocery store, liquer store, pharmacy, garage, bank, gas station and so on. It's nice to enter our swimming pool to practice or relax. It has waterslides!

63° 50.083'N, 20° 24.087'W

Sagnagarður

Visitor center

The story of soil and vegetation degradation in Iceland and a century of reclamation activities. In Sagnagarður you can learn about how Icelanders have responded to natural disasters and human error.

Open upon request.

63° 51.830'N, 20° 13.083'W

Keldur

Turf houses and a church

On the farm of Keldur is a unique cluster of historic buildings. The farmhouse is an example of the oldest surviving type of turf buildings in Iceland, in which the front buildings, on either side of the farmhouse entrance, are parallel to the farmyard.

No service at place.

63° 49.341'N, 20° 4.721'W

Þykkvibær

The oldest country villages in Iceland!

Þykkvibær is a interesting place – told to be the oldest country village in Iceland – existed for about 1000 years. Known nowadays times for farmers growing potatoes. Travelers can by pre booking access activities close to Þykkvibær. Mudshark fishing, horse riding or enjoy a ride in horse carts. You can afterwards enjoy a cup of coffee at one of the local hotels.

63° 44.455'N, 20° 36.131'W

Ægissíðufoss

Beautiful waterfall in Ytri-Rangá

From Hella there is a 2.5 km one way foot-path towards Ægissíðufoss along the river. The river is often called the crown jewel of Hella – you'll understand why while hiking this route. The birdlife in the river is rich and you might see a salmon jump. We recommend that you take at least something to drink with you for this hike.

63° 49.119'N, 20° 25.184'W

Oddi

History at every corner

Oddi is a historical place. Today you can access a beautiful church and read about it's history on information post located at place. Even though the place doesn't seem like a palace in terms of history it is one of the most historical place in Iceland. Around the year 1200 the powermost people if Iceland lived there.

63° 46.608'N, 20° 23.170'W

Please always check road conditions before you head out for the day. When in Iceland travelers travel on their own responsibility. All information is subject to change. If using online - click here to access google maps link for all places.

www.visithella.is
#visithella

Rangárþing ytra

Visit South Iceland

safetravel.is
The official source for safe adventure in Iceland